HALLMARKS

Thanks to everyone who made Senior Sunday a success last week! Thanks to Julia and her cooks for providing the tea and dessert, Ashley and her helpers for cooking the meal, Byron for leading worship, Peter for running PowerPoint and making sure the senior slideshow ran smooth, Sandra Huskey for decorating the gym, everyone who stayed to eat and honor our graduates, and to our seniors and their families for setting up tables in the foyer and being present! It was a great day of celebration and I feel extremely privileged to have played a small role in the lives of our seniors! I am so excited to see where God leads them and what adventures come their way! I am so proud of all of them!

I got to brag on my Dad a bit in my sermon last week. I sought to correlate the trust we have in our parents when we are young to the level of trust we should aspire to have in our perfect heavenly Father. This week, it is all about moms. I began to think about all the lessons my own mom has taught me through the years and the ones she continues to teach me even now. Moms are amazing and hold a special place in the hearts of their children. Moms show their kids what it means to be kind and compassionate. They instill in them a love for life and a love for others. They teach them about what it means to depend on someone and what it means to trust. They show on a daily basis what it truly means to sacrifice for someone else. They teach us how to listen and when to speak. They model what it means to forgive and to be forgiven. They show what unconditional love looks like, and more importantly, what it feels like.

Happy Mother's Day!

Giving: First Things First

Some Obvious Things About Giving: Ps. 50:10-12; Pro 3:9

Giving is about God doing Something in ME!

Giving is about keeping First Things First! 2 Cor. 8:1-15

Take Home:

1. How do you decide what you will give?
2. Do you ever try to "pay off" God?
3. How is God changing you through your habit of giving?
